The Masnun Acts of Salah

1. Tawajjuh

It is recommended to say six *takbir*s in addition to *takbirat al-iftitah; any of which can be chosen as the takbirat al-ihram. After the seventh he says the invocation of tawajjuh* (وَجَّهتُ وجهی للذی فطر السموات و الأرض ...).

2. Qunut

It is to be recited before *ruku' and after qira'ah of every second rak'ah. It is mustahabb for the musalli to invocate (God) with the reported supplications, or whatever he likes, the least of which can be three *tasbih*s.

- In the Friday prayer there are two qunuts, one in the first rak'ah before ruku', and the other in the second rak'ah after the ruku'. If he forgets it he can recite it as qada' after the ruku'.

3. Looking at the locale of sujud when standing, at the palms in qunut, at the space between the feet in ruku', at the edge of the nose in sujud and at the lap in tashahhud

4. To put the hands on the thighs while standing, in front of the face in qunut, on the knees in ruku', adjacent to the ears in ruku'...

5. Ta'qeeb

The best ta'qib (dhikr after the salat) is tasbih* of al-Zahra (peace be upon her), and after it other supplications according to reported narrations. Otherwise, whatever is feasible.
