

Lesson 2

Topic: Ahkam is derived from Quran and Ahlul bayt

The Quran doesn't contain all the details of Islamic rulings or other fields of knowledge; the prophet and the imams are the ones who are able to explain and derive all the needed rules out of the Quran. After the holy prophet, some usurped the power and mislead Muslims by changing the source of ahkam.

The main source of fiqh is the Quran, through the interpretation and explanation of the infallible prophet and imams and the fuqaha or jurisprudents are to derive ahkam from these two, using intellect.
