5. It is not permissible to perform salat in a usurped dress.

6. It is not permissible to perform salat while wearing something that covers the outside (back) of the foot, such as shamshak. However, salat is valid with that which has leg (saq) such as socks. It is mustahabb to pray with Arab sandal.

7. Salat is valid in all the other (than silk ...) materials under the condition of being lawfully owned/permitted, and pure.

✚ It is permissible for a man to pray in one dress; while for the woman, it is only permissible in two dresses: a dir' (coat of mail) and khimar (veil), covering all parts of her body, except the face, back of her hands, and outside of her feet, with a disagreement in regard to the feet.

✚ It is permissible but makruh for the man to pray naked, provided that he covers his frontal and rear private parts. In case he has no dress, he can cover the private parts with anything available, even with leaves.

✚ If nothing is found to cover the private parts, he can pray naked standing up, if feeling safe from being seen by anyone. If no safety is felt, he can pray while sitting. In both the cases, he has to do the ruku' and sujud by mere pointing.
