

L 17

Topic: Appreciating the masters and the time

Chapter 9: Appreciation (فى الإستفاده)

- He should always have paper and pen with himself to record any useful thing ...

«قَيِّدُوا الْعِلْمَ بِالْكَتَابَةِ»

Capture knowledge by writing it.

- It's been said: (the useful) knowledge is what is taken (face to face) from the mouths of the knowledgeable.
- ...because they memorize the best of their (authenticate) hearsays and they say the best of their memories.
- Knowledge is enormous and life is short, so he shouldn't waste time and should appreciate (his) nights and solitude.
- ✓ Night is long, don't shrink it with sleep and day is bright so don't darken it with sins.
- ... And should appreciate the masters
- And should not be (always) regretful about the missed chances, he should appreciate his present time and future.
- He should bear inferiority in this way.
- And flattering is shameful except in seeking knowledge (from the master and classmates)
