

L 1

- ❖ An introduction by the lecturer

The book of Munyat al- Murid is written by Shahid thani (Zain al-din ibn Ahmad al- Ameli) 9011-9066 A.H. which is going to be studied in this course.

Islam is a complete religion and has teachings in every aspect of our lives, including the ethics of education. This book is about the ethics of teaching and studying, received from the teachings of Quran and sayings of the prophet and ahlulbait.

We must make our best efforts in studying as the Shiite scholars have suffered a lot to compile and preserve the legacy of the infallibles.

- ❖ A prologue by the author:

- ✓ God is the One who acquainted mankind with science and knowledge by pen and the quill. He taught man knowledge which he did not know.

May God's blessing be upon His Messenger who is the most exalted scholar and the teacher of all mankind. May God send his greetings and salutations upon the household and helpers of the Messenger (s) who have equipped themselves with his teachings and decorated themselves with his manners and etiquettes (not those who showed disrespect and animosity towards the prophet and his progeny).