

Topic: The excellence of Learning and Teaching others in Narrations (From Imam Hasan, Husayn and Ali ibn Husayn (s))

- ✓ Imam Hasan (a): The superiority of the guardian of an orphan from the household of Muhammad is like the superiority of the sun with respect to 'Suha (a star with little light)
- ✓ Imam Husayn (a): On the Day of Judgment, God will address the angels saying, 'Oh angels, prepare thousands and thousands of sundry castles of calmness in the gardens of Heaven for each of the words which this my servant has taught and add whatever blessings are appropriate for the castles.'
- ✓ Imam Ali ibn Husayn (a): God revealed to P. Moses (a), "If you bring one of my servants who has run away from My threshold back to Me, or guide someone towards me, it is more valuable than if you worship Me for a hundred years while you are fasting during the days and awake at nights, worshipping Me. P. Moses (a) said, What kind of a person is he who has run away from your threshold? God replied, "The sinner who has disobeyed my order." P. Moses (a) said, "who has strayed away your bounds?" God replied, "the one who hasn't recognized the Imam of his age (zamana) and the true leader of his time. You must guide him so that he can serve Me and attain My satisfaction.
 - Therefore, give good news to the Shi'ah scholars and our followers, that they will be given a great reward.

