

Topic: The excellence of knowledge and learning in narrations

- ❖ In continuation, there are some other narrations about knowledge from Ahl al-Bayt, mentioning:
  - ✓ A scholar is someone who benefits people and saves them from their enemies and provides them heaven and makes Allah satisfied with them.
  - ✓ (In the hereafter) The scholar is told: “O the caretaker of the orphans of the Ahl al-Bayt and who guides them, stay so that you may intercede for anyone who has benefited from you and learned something ... until the Day of Judgment.
  - ✓ A scholar who takes care of the orphans of Ahl al-Bayt – who are separated away from their imams ..._ and saves them from deviation is superior to the (merely) worshipper more than the superiority of the sky over the earth ... and the full moon over the most hidden star in the sky.
  - ✓ If it was not because of the scholars –after the occultation of the Imam Mahdi- who guide people to him and protect the faith ... like a ship does to its passengers, there would not have remained anyone who had not turned away from the path of Allah; they are the best for Allah.
