

Chapter one:

The Required Etiquettes and Duties for Teachers and Students

Section one: the required etiquettes and duties of teachers and students to themselves

- 1- Pure intention - before commencing, during the pursuance and after completion-.
  - a. Quran
  - b. The Holy Prophet (cont....)
    - xxii. My greatest fear for you, my Islamic nation, after my death is for the hypocrite who is knowledgeable in his speech.
    - xxiii. The worst of the bad is the scholar with a bad behavior. And, the best of the good is the scholar with a good behavior.
    - xxiv. If someone claims to be knowledgeable, know that he is ignorant.
    - xxv. Knowledge will spread so much that it will cover more area than the seas. And, the seas will prepare their depths to serve the divine religion. Knowledge will enter their depths. Then a group will come who recite the Quran and claim to be the readers of the Holy Quran. They will ask, 'Is there anyone in the world who is more familiar with how to recite the Quran than us? Or has more awareness of religious laws, insight and knowledge?'

The Holy Prophet turned to his companions and said, do you suppose you will benefit from this pretentious group?' 'No', they responded. He said, 'This is a worthless group from among the people of the Muslim Nation. They will be the fuel of the hellfire.'
  - c. Shia specific traditions:
    - H. Prophet (s): there are two groups of people who are never satisfied
      - a. People who are in pursuit of wealth
      - b. People who are in pursuit of knowledge
