Salat* is valid in all places, provided that the place is lawfully owned or permitted to use by its owner.

+ The permission is either explicitly given or understood through fahwa (inferred from the owner's statement as 'stay here') or the situation is indicating.

+ Salat* is invalid if performed in a usurped place, whether it is of the usurper or someone who knows about it.

+ If someone forgets or does not know that the place is usurped, the prayers done would be correct. However, if the person does not know the rule, they are not excused.
