

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Lesson 33

Substitutive I'rab Signs in Plural Nouns

The non-derivative noun can be pluralized in the following conditions:

1. Proper noun
2. For male
3. Intelligent Masculine
4. Should not end with the 'ة' of femininity.
5. Should not be a compound noun (tarkeeb)

The derivative nouns can be pluralized regularly, provided that:

1. They describe a male
2. They are used for intelligent masculine
3. They don't end with the 'ة' of femininity
4. They must not be on the pattern of "أفعل- فعلاء"
5. They must not be on the pattern of "فعلان- فعلى"
6. Their masculine and feminine forms must not be the same, like "صبور" and "جريح"

The attachments of masculine regular plural noun (in i'rab):

- 'عشرون' and the like (they do not have singular forms)
- 'أولوا' (does not have a singular form)

- 'أهلون' (which is non-derivative but not a proper noun)
- 'عالمون' (which is non-derivative but not a proper noun)
- 'عليون' (which is not a name for an intelligent thing)
- 'أرضون', 'سنون' and the like (which are non-derivative, their singulars are feminine and not proper nouns)
