- There is a mistake that laughing “ضحك” can be attributed to humans. “عرض” sometimes is opposite to “جوهر” (exists independently) but there is another “عرض” (exists in other subjects). “عرضی” can be predicated on the subject, and it is opposite to essential.
- Accidental عرضی:
  1. Inseparable “لازم”: Rationally inseparable from its subject, such as ‘three is odd’ or ‘fire is hot’.
  2. Separable “مفارق”: Rationally separable from its subject, such as being sick.

- البين بالمعنى الاخص: The “العرض اللازم” that is obvious, conceiving the concomitant of which necessitates conceiving it, without need to a medium.
- البين بالمعنى الاعم: The “العرضی اللازم” that is not obvious, in which conceiving it along with the concomitant and the relation between, necessitates certainty of the concomitance.
