

L 5

Topic: Venerating Knowledge/Determination

The story of Mulla Saleh Mazandarani

A review on the 1st, 2nd and, the 3rd chapter

- The student should venerate knowledge and its people (the people who are connected to knowledge) as far as possible.
- The student should not take books and lessons and study without purity.
- The student had better have good handwriting, should avoid writing illegibly or annotate too much.
- The student should leave it to his/her master to choose what needs to be studied, because he/she is experienced and knows what is appropriate.
- The student had better put some distance between him/her and the master, out of respect.
- Bad moralities are like spiritual dogs that angels hate them and students should avoid them as well.
- Chapter four: about determination, consistency and ambition
- The student has to have determination, perseverance and consistency so he would success.
- Repetition at the beginning of night and the end of it is recommended for studying, the time between the maqrib and Isha' prayer and also at dawn are auspicious times.
- Good nights will make good days.
- The student should appreciate his/her teen years and adolescence.
- The student should keep lenience towards him/herself.