

Topic: The excellence of knowledge and learning in narrations

- ❖ In continuation, there are some other narrations about knowledge from Ahl al-Bayt, mentioning:
- ✓ A scholar is like a person who is carrying many candles which overcome the darkness of the night and sheds light ... and Allah bestows him/her for each strand of hair...
- ✓ Scholars from our Shi'ah are the guards of the frontiers on the other side of which there are devils and their cohorts. They prevent Satan and his followers from dominating over the weak of Shi'ah; so they are a million times better than those who fought (in wars) for Islam, because they protect the faith rather than bodies.
- ✓ A single scholar who saves an orphan- that (is an orphan because) can't visit us or study our knowledge- is unbearable for devil more than a million of prayerful.
