

Al-Mantiq

Lesson 9

Divisions of the Assent

Tasdiq belongs to the relationship in a predicative sentence along with a judgment about whether it is true.

The subject of Conception “Tasawwur” belongs to one the following:

1. A singular conception; such as a word or a particle.
2. Predicative ascription with doubt and without any assent; such as when someone says, “Mars is alive” and you imagine the relation.
3. Non-predicative sentences.
4. Incomplete compositions; such as: “If it were lion”

Divisions of the Assent:

There are two divisions of the assent: certainty (yaqīn) and probability (zann).
