- Conditions of Definition:

- 5. Being expressed in clear words: The words used in the definition must be clear and without ambiguity, so using strange, complicated, common, and figurative words in the definition is inappropriate.

- 'القسمة' means dividing and disintegrating a thing into different separated parts. The divided is called 'مقسم' regarding which every division part is called 'قسم' which regarding the other parts is called 'قسيم'. For example, when knowledge is divided into conception and assent, knowledge is the

- 'مقسم', conception and assent are 'قسم' to knowledge and 'قسيم' to each other.
