

Sharayi' al-Islam (Salat)

Lesson 18

The Place of *Salat

- ✚ It is not permissible for a man to perform salat with a woman praying beside or in front of him. However, the preponderant view is that it is only makruh.
- ✚ If the woman is behind the man by (at least) a distance that the locale of her sujud is adjacent to his feet, there is no prohibition.
- ✚ The prohibition or aversion will be removed when there is a screen or a distance between the two exceeding 10 cubits.
- ✚ If they are in a single place where they cannot keep the distance from each other, the man should pray first and then the woman.
- ✚ There is no objection to performing salat in a najis place if the najasah is in such a small quantity that it cannot transmit to the clothing or the body, but the locale of sujud must be *tahir.
