Lesson 20

The Law of Completion

- ✚ Imam Baqir (as): And wipe your head's forepart with the wetness of your right hand...
(Al-Kafi, v. 3, pg. 25)
- ✚ It is specifically mentioned in the Hadith that one must wipe his head with the wetness of his right hand, so it is mandatory for us to ensure that it does not mix with any other wetness, and our head and feet is dry before the wiping.
- ✚ The Law of Completion (قاعدة الفراغ)
After completing an act, if you doubt whether you have done it correctly or not, don't pay heed to your doubt and consider the act correct.
- ✚ One has to offer the Qadha for only those prayers for which he is sure that it has passed him. It means that only those prayers for which he is certain that he has not offered, must be offered as Qadha by him.
