

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Lesson 40

Section Four: The Rules of Tayammum

The Rules of Tayammum

- 1) Whoever performs Tayammum and offers his prayer with it, it's not obligatory on him to repeat his prayer upon finding water, irrespective of whether he is at home or travelling.
- 2) It is obligatory on the Musalli to search for water; and if he doesn't search for it and offers his prayer, and then finds water in his luggage, or with his companions, he must perform Wudhu and repeat his prayers.
- 3) For someone who does not find water for Wudhu or something with which he can perform Tayammum because of a restriction, or due to imprisonment in a Najis place, there are three opinions:

First: He must offer his prayer and repeat later.

Second: He must wait until the excuse ends, and if the time of the prayer passes, he must observe Qadha.

Third: Prayer is not obligatory on him, neither within it's time, nor Qadha. (This is the most preponderant opinion).